NOTE: The Xbasic programming language and the transition from Alpha Four to Alpha Five are not covered in this seminar. We are sorry to announce that, due to other commitments, Frances Peake will not be able to instruct at this seminar.

On the drawing board:

Converting from Alpha Four?

Stay tuned for news of our upcoming Alpha Four to Alpha Five: The Transition, a webinar given by Frances Peake, professional database designer and expert on both Alpha Four and Alpha Five.

A4 Fans - Get inspired! Francie has many tips to pass on. Do the webinar first and then come to the Get Into Alpha Five! seminar prepared with all the Alpha Five terms and ready to dig into windows – or take the webinar when you get back.

You can take this 1-hour on-line seminar from the comfort of your home or office. If you are interested, please email frances@proctorandpeake.com right away! And keep an eye on www.libertymanuals.com for more details.
